This company is highly spoken of by all the Cincinnati papers, it having a run of over two weeks at the Highland House in that city.

To-day's Enquirer has a very flattering compliment for the troupe. It says:

"The Thompson Opera Company closed last night the most successful engagement ever played in Cincinnati. The house was crowded to the doors long before eight o'clock. The stage presented to the audience a perfect flower garden, and between the first and secand acts Mr. Thompson was called out before the curtain and presented with a most beautiful floral offering by his host of friends in this city. We must say that the run of the "Mikado" here has been unprecedented and we are safe in saying that if Mr. Thompson continues to bring such excellent troupes as he has brought together now, his success is assured." This surely speaks for itself.

A Light Docket.

As Judge White returns for the fall term of Common Pleas Court this atternoon, the assignment of cases will be made tomorrow. At the bar meeting last Friday Judge White announced his intention of calling the docket and assigning the cases but the attorneys objected clamorously, saying that there were a great number of cases which they were not his saloon open on Sunday. The penalty for yet ready to try. It was then agreed that the attorneys should file notice with the clerk of what cases they were ready to try, and they should be assigned September 1. As yet the only cases noted for trial are the three divorce cases of Peter King vs. Lydia King. John H. Tucker vs. Amelia Tucker, and James M. Williams vs. Nettie Williams, and the breach of contract suit of George Perkins vs. the Globs Printing and Publishing Co.

PLATTSBURGH, Aug. 31.—The "Rebecca" picnic last Saturday proved a grand success. Seven lodges were represented. Quite a number of lively gentlemen and ladies were present from Springfield. Fred's handsome face was wreathed in smiles. Dr. Nelson's delicate form was conspicuous. Killen's jaw made a good shortstop. Cate lost her basket. Everybody seemed young again. Arrange-ments were made to have an annual picnic. Miss Gussie Nichelson celebrated her eighteenth birthday Saturday, by enteartaining quite a number of her young friends with a tea party. J. M. Queen writes from Johnston, W. He says he has to go or send a distance of fifteen miles to obtain PERU-NA, but it will repay him for this.

There is a back passage way leading to the saloon from Center street in the rear of Ward's grocery. Here a guard is stationed after 10 o'clock at night and on Sundays, and nobody can get by without giving the countersign, while if a copper appears it is the business of this guard to give the alarm.
